That will be the day – working up to a response on your question about how the call went

Actually, I did not have access to email while we were on the call yesterday, I was asking my questions. I wasn't overly thrilled with the responses, but at least the questions were put out there. I was surprised to see when I got in this morning that Bo had put out the same questions -

Thank you for your assistance with relaying questions. I appreciate your patience. I imagine ADEQ will return next time.
